

PT11: Sanctuary of Truth

(Half Day)

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Destination Pattaya |  Duration Half Day 3 Hours |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Tour Description

The Sanctuary of Truth or Prasat Satchatham Temple is a wooden temple, located by the sea. It was designed by Lek Wiriyanan, the founder of the Ancient City in Samut Prakan province in 1981. The temple is entirely built with wood. The beauty of the temple is elaborated through wood dwellings and woodcarvings. It is considered an exotic and imposing architectural work of art of the century, embellishing with artwork and woodcarvings which reflects the intellect and spirit of the Eastern civilization and art. It also reflects the importance of religion which has helped to uphold the world. The temple received the award of Outstanding Tourist Attraction from the Tourism Industry Awards in 2008.

Schedule & Trip

| | | |
|-----------------|-----------|------------------|
| MORNING | or | AFTERNOON |
| 09:00am–12:00pm | | 01:00pm–04:00pm |